

German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) - <http://www.daad.de>

Provides information on the German higher education system and on studying in Germany, on scholarships and funding opportunities offered by the DAAD, language tests, summer courses, and, in general, on living in Germany. There are a number of search engines to help you find the best solution for your (further) qualification.

Besides providing downloadable application forms in PDF format in German, English, French and Spanish, along with the "Application Form for Admission to Studies", the "Service" section also contains a list of recommended reading, further links, answers to FAQ's and much more. The "DAAD worldwide" service provides addresses, web sites and opening hours of all DAAD offices at home and abroad (14 branch offices and currently 48 Information Centers around the globe).

Languages: German, English and Spanish

<http://www.campus-germany.de>

Campus Germany helps you find the answers to all your questions about studying and doing research and vocational training in Germany. Besides offering initial information on these topics, the site provides a portrait of every university town in Germany, a dictionary of specialist terms, an interactive forum, videos in which international students report on their stay and experiences in Germany and much, much more.

Languages: German, English, Spanish, Russian and Chinese